

I am appalled by Sinclair Broadcasting's airing of the faux documentary against John Kerry and trying to foist it upon its viewers as news. Such abuse of the language is only exceeded by Sinclair's abuse of its license's obligation to deliver even-handed service in return for its use of the public airwaves.